I appreciate that I would have curiosity for how you know a Lrtempla plate can be converted to DNG. Can someone help me become? Appreciate it as I said before, you can not convert a preset setting (which is a text file) to DNG (which is an image file format). So I can use them for the edition of my móvil (iOS). It is clearly for personal use. Again, do not think that is possible. - Hide signature - answer Á, answer with the appointment Á, response to thread, complain Re: convert LRtemplates to DNG through Lightroom. I want to be able to use them at the Lightroom application in my phone. Apply the preset setting in the photo you want and then go to File: Export with preset: Export to DNG. Essentially, it includes instructions in the file. Then, copy and paste from the image in the mobile application, at: is essentially transferring the pre-established setting by copying / paste. Other, simply send the DNG file to your phone, BABRIE with the Mobile Lightroom application and The preset setup! ÁjBINGO!
